EXHIBITION OF CONTEMPORARY PAINTINGS BY ARTISTS OF THE UNITED STATES, ARRANGED BY COURTESY OF THE CARNEGIE CORPORATION OF NEW YORK, CIRCULATED IN CANADA BY THE NATIONAL GALLERY, OTTAWA, 1934-35.

ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUES OF THE AMERICAN EXHIBITION MAY ALSO BE PURCHASED.

FOREWORD

IN furtherance of its policy of presenting as many exhibitions of contemporary painting as possible to the Canadian public, the National Gallery had for some years been extremely anxious to secure a thoroughly representative exhibition of contemporary American painting for circulation in Canada. It was felt that Canadians did not know nearly enough of the trends and accomplishments of the art of its nearest neighbour, from whom so much was obviously to be learnt, and that the only way to correct this condition was by the arrangement of some outstanding exhibition which, after being shown at the National Gallery in Ottawa, could remain in the country long enough to tour the principal art galleries of the Dominion.

An appeal by the Trustees of the National Gallery to the Carnegie Corporation of New York, whose interest in the furtherance of art in the British Dominions is well-known and is in practical and fruitful operation, brought an immediate and entirely sympathetic response from its President, Mr. F. P. Keppel, and this exhibition is the result. It has been selected by a committee especially appointed by the Carnegie Corporation for the purpose and possessing outstanding knowledge of contemporary American art and the exhibition is as representative of the most interesting work being accomplished in the United States to-day as it has been possible to make it.

Since its inception, the scope and importance of the exhibition has grown and plans are now being made for its showing in each of the British Dominions where it will undoubtedly be appreciated and studied as kindly as it will be in Canada.

The National Gallery is therefore only too glad to take this opportunity of expressing its deepest appreciation to the Carnegie Corporation both for its perspicacity in realizing the importance of such artistic exchanges between nations and for its generosity in making such exchanges possible.
